Welcome to Small Fry

Our food is an eclectic mix of street food and international favorites. We take inspiration from classic dishes, and put our own touch on them. The objective is to offer a wide variety of options, while maintaining the unpretentious and comfort food philosophy.

We prepare all of our sauces and dressings from scratch, and treat our ingredients with love and respect. We take the time and make the effort to do things the correct way; not necessarily the easy or convenient way. We feel that this extra effort, will show in our food, and more importantly, will be appreciated by our guests.

We hope you enjoy!
